The Catamount Staff

We Honor

Mr. Ernest Kissinger

With true loyalty and steadfast devotion, Mr. Ernest Kissinger has unstintingly served Potomac State College for 26 years. As janitor and custodian of the Administration Building, he has regularly and faithfully discharged each assignment with full measure. Potomac State students and faculty hold "Ernie" in high esteem for his cheerful friendliness, gestures of thoughtfulness, and spirit of eager cooperation. Ernest Kissinger has merited the high regard of his fellow townsmen in his labors for church and community.

The members of the volunteer staff of the yearbook say, "Thanks, Ernie, on behalf of the thousands of Potomac State students scattered around the world who remember you for making the cherished years here a bit richer and fuller."

With affection and appreciation, the 1956 CATAMOUNT is dedicated to Mr. Ernest Kissinger.

There's a school in old Virginia, And her praises we will sing, Potomac State, Potomac State. Where we try To Potomac our classes and do other naughty things, Potomac State, Potomac State. We've had set backs and hard ships and have met them all with pep, But whatever work we do duly we have had to walk our step. We're by good mares "Pansy" to protect and guard our trees, Potomac State, Potomac State, Potomac State, Potomac State, We'll never forget Potomac State. Where in fair and stormy weather we've trotted school together, No! We'll never forget Potomac State.

Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Iota Chi is the oldest sorority on the campus of Potomac State College. Although it was originally founded in 1903 at the University of the South at Sewannee, Tennessee, as an honor society, it has become the largest social organization. This sorority has become the largest junior college sorority in the United States and stresses the importance of scholastic achievement and fellowship, thus carrying on the spirit and ideals of the first chapter.

The home of Mrs. Thad Huffman was the scene of the "Herando's Hidaway Rush Party." Thirty-one pledges were received in October, and twenty-two were initiated in March.

Miss Sue Schoppert was crowned Queen of Winter at the Jingle Bell Hop. Miss Janice Mills was selected "Sigma Sweetheart" at the annual Sigma Sweetheart Ball in February. In a campus election, Miss Elrose Tibbetts was elected Freshman Belle. Miss Judy Rhodes was elected "Military Ball Queen" at the Military Ball. In February, the Alumnae chapter of Keyser entertained the group with a "Bunko Party" held at the Towne House Restaurant.

The Sigma Sorority sponsored a Gold Digger's Hop as its annual Center Dance. A series of programs with the theme "College Life and Its Problems" were presented throughout the year. Baskets were distributed to the needy at Christmas.

Phi Sigma Nu, founded in 1922 and known then as the Kappa Kappa Fraternity, has been one of the most outstanding social groups of Potomac State College.

The pledge party in the Science Building marked the beginning of the year's activities. This was highlighted by a set of songs by the fraternity's own barber shop quartet.

For the last two years the Phi Sigma Nu has been the only Fraternity entering a float in the Circle K Club's Homecoming Parade; this year the Fraternity won third prize.

Miss Betty Sue Schoppert and Mr. Thomas Bartlett were crowned Queen and King of Winter at the seventeenth annual Jingle Bell Hop sponsored by the Phi Sigma Nu.

Phi Sigma Nu has for the last eleven years won the Dean's Scholarship Award, given to the Greek-letter organization making the highest total scholastic average as a group. Phi Sigma Nu demands of its members scholastic achievement, college spirit, high moral standing, and an interest in all college activities. A leader in all campus activities, the Fraternity is proud that its members hold many important offices on the campus.

The bonds of friendship established here will be lasting memories in the years to come.

Kappa Delta Psi is the youngest sorority on Potomac State campus, having been officially founded April 26, 1951. Its objectives are to further scholarship, to stimulate school spirit, to promote high moral standards, and to develop a close feeling of friendship among its members and a loyalty to the college which is its founding place.

As a result of an informal "Hobo Party" held during Rush Week at the Blue Jay, twenty pledges were initiated in March.

Following a campus-wide election, Sue Thayer reigned as "Miss Catamount XVII" during the Homecoming festivities in October. Selected by the faculty to represent Potomac State College at the Apple Blossom Festival was Miss Jo Ann Freeland. In February, Miss Jean Lough was chosen as Sophomore Belle by vote of the student body and also selected as Campus Cover Girl.

Mrs. J. Clark Bright entertained the members with a Christmas Party at her home. Valentine and Easter baskets were contributed to needy families in this area. "Sleepy's Chateau" was chosen for the Center dance sponsored by the sorority.

With their brother fraternity, Phi Kappa Omega, the sorority co-sponsored the annual Easter Ball, the theme of which was an elaboration of the lyrics of "Easter Parade." The Kappa picnic with the brother fraternity is an event eagerly anticipated annually.

The Phi Kappa Omega Fraternity was founded March 21, 1949, on the campus of Potomac State College. This organization holds as its objectives, high scholarship, sound moral character, and cooperation in working for the best interests of its members as individuals, the fraternity as a group, and advancement of the college.

Active brothers inaugurated the fall term by entertaining new men at a rush party held in the Social Room of the Science Building. Traditional social activities of the Phi Kappa Omega include the Kappa Easter Ball and the spring picnic. Miss Donna Joy Niner, of the sister sorority, Kappa Delta Psi, reigned as queen of the Easter Ball. Other members from the sister sorority to whom the fraternity points with pride are Miss Sue Thayer as "Miss Catamount"; Miss Jean Lough, Sophomore Belle and representative of Potomac State in the Pittsburgh Press Campus Cover Girl Contest; and Miss Jo Ann Freeland, representing Potomac State in the "Apple Blossom Festival."

The fraternity is well represented in campus activities, such as elections, social functions, sports, and scholarship. Phi Kappa Omega is proud of its members in exemplifying leadership and varied activities.

The organization demands a cooperative spirit in working for the betterment of the fraternity and Potomac State College.

The friendships established within the fraternity will be remembered throughout the years.

Eta Upsilon Gamma was founded at Christian College, Columbia, Missouri, in 1901, and is the oldest national junior college sorority in the National College Pan Hellenic. The aims of the sorority are to promote scholarship, to stimulate school spirit, and to enrich and broaden friendship.

In October the annual formal rush party was held. During the year the Gammas co-sponsored two dances, the Harvest Swing and the Spring Formal with their brother fraternity, Theta Sigma Chi.

The sorority sponsored bake sales, a card party, square dance, and also sold boxed candy during the Yule Season. The annual Christmas party was at the home of Mrs. Ervin L. Dayton.

The climax of the year was the annual banquet held by the Gammas to bid farewell to the sophomores and to wish the future sophomores good luck in the coming year.

Theta Sigma Chi Fraternity was founded at Potomac State College in 1922. Through out the years it has promoted fellowship, high moral standards, scholarship, and social betterment. Its members have long played an important role in all campus activities.

Continuing our annual tradition, we again sponsored the "Miss Catamount" contest and crowned Miss Sue Thayer of Arlington, Virginia, as Miss Catamount XVII.

In November Theta Sigma Chi sponsored the Harvest Swing, a semi-formal dance, featuring the music of the Aristocrats. The main activities during the second semester were the Spring Formal and the annual banquet for all active members.

The Panhellenic Council, governing body of the Greek letter organizations on campus, is composed of three members, two sophomores and a freshman, from each fraternity and sorority. The council serves as a forum for the discussion of problems pertaining to fraternal life. Its aim is to promote good fellowship and co-operation among the fraternities and sororities on the campus, to assist in keeping up the spirit of the school, and to maintain the highest ideals of life, character, and citizenship. Panhellenic arranges the annual school program for these societies and arbitrates school campaigns and elections.

Student Council

The governing organization of the student body of Potomac State College is the Student Council, whose major objectives are directing student activities and promoting school spirit.

During Freshman Week, the Council assisted in the orientation program for tthe incoming students; two weeks later the group helped to organize the freshman class, selected freshman rules, and supervised their enforcement through the Kangaroo Court. The Council supervised the selection of cheerleaders, held "thuses," and sold programs for the football games.

On October 22, the Student Council sponsored one of the most gala affairs on the campus, the annual Homecoming Ball, honoring Miss Sue Thayer as Miss Catamount XVII. In May, the Council cooperated with the Physical Education Department in the May Day Fete, which culminated in the May Queen's Ball.

Upon recommendation of the Athletic Department, the Council presented letters and sweaters to athletes. The Council sponsored a Student Center dance in the fall and a campus-wide fund drive in March on behalf of World University Service.

Since 1923, Sigma Phi Omega has held an honored position at Potomac State College and has faithfully endeavored to carry out the purposes for which it was organized—to foster scholarship and campus leadership.

The organization has traditionally used a unique way to bring its ideals before the student body, and this year has been no exception. At the first convocation following the opening of school, Sigma Phi Omega presented campus leaders to the student body in a program aimed at acquainting new students with the history and purposes of all campus societies. A parallel program at the close of the year will give recognition to worthy achievements of these societies and their members. At this time the president of the student body is inaugurated. The formal initiation of new members and the annual banquet in their honor have important places on the college roster of events.

Members of Sigma Phi Omega strive to uphold standards of scholarship and citizenship, and to co-operate with the college at all times.

The Agriculture Club of Potomac State College is the youngest organization on the campus. In the fall of 1954, a group of agriculture men under the advisorship of John B. Swecker drew up the constitution, and organized the club. Paul Homan was elected president.

On homecoming day, the club held a chicken barbecue which was enjoyed by approximately 450 people. This year the club took a two day tour to the State Farm Show, at Harrisburg, and the Hershey farm and school at Hershey, Pennsylvania. This year, the club decided to present a plaque, or suitable award, to the outstanding sophomore each year.

The Pasquino

The PASQUINO, Potomac State student newspaper, is one of the oldest traditions of the college, having completed its thirty-seventh year of publication in May, 1956.

Aside from campus circulation, the PASQUINO is distributed to advertisers and alumni all over the world.

The staff is largely made up of volunteer workers, as the regular journalism classes are too small to undertake publication alone. Each year the staff compiles a Student-Faculty directory.

Social highlight of the year is the annual Press Banquet, when an outstanding journalist addresses the group.

The PASQUINO is affiliated with the West Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association.

Thirty-five years of dramatic activity on the campus was completed by the Potomac State Players this spring. The organization added fifteen new members to its roster for this year.

The first major activity of the group was the production of two one-act plays for the Christmas season. These were "A Certain Star" and "A By-Line For St. Luke," presented just before the holidays. Members of the club who were seen in the presentation included Frances Mount, Patricia Cooper, Janet Spiker, Marlene Fisher, Elaine Mankins, Carolyn Findlay, Donna Joy Niner, George Wilson, James Small, Michael Webb, David Mason and Charles Ball.

Members of the club who distinguish themselves in dramatic endeavors are awarded membership in Delta Psi Omega, national dramatic honorary fraternity of which Potomac State College is Cast 110.

The Potomac State Debaters used this year the intercollegiate topic: "Resolved that industry should extend to all of its non-agricultural workers a guaranteed annual wage." Most of the time was spent in discussing the topic and also the techniques of good debating. Debate teams appeared before the Grace Methodist and Presbyterian Men, and members of the team participated in the West Virginia Forensic Tournament at Marshall College in Huntington. Members of the club helped put on the American Legion Oratorical Contest and the West Virginia Forensic high school tournament, Section IIIA.

For the past thirty years the Potomac State Singers have been the most active cultural organization on the campus. The highlight of the winter season was the presentation of "The Story of Christmas," a cantata by Matthews, which was presented before the Keyser Rotary Club and before the College as the Christmas convocation. The cantata featured the Mixed Chorus, the Men's and Women's Choruses and the following soloists: Margaret Griffin, Dorothy Yost, Harold Benson, Fred Pfeifer, Arnold Smith and Gary Swadley. The candlelight processional and soft lights added to the effectiveness of the lovely music.

Preceeding the annual tour of high schools, the group appeared before local clubs and churches as well as for the College Religious Emphasis Week programs. Climaxing the school year was the Spring Tour. Fifteen high schools in West Virginia and Maryland were visited.

Six sophomores, who completed two years in the Singers, were presented pins at a dinner given in their honor. Those receiving these awards for two years of faithful service to the organization were: Margaret Griffin, Sharon Goudy, Ida Frances Ward, Jack Harvey, Arnold Smith and Fred Pfeifer.

Potomac State Dance Band

Under the direction of Mr. Nunzio Barbera, the dance band provides entertainment and fun for members, with a taste of modern jazz and popular songs. They appear at Student Center and high school dances. Fred Pfeifer is student director.

In 1952 the Circle K Club of Potomac State College was granted its International Charter No. 33 with the purpose of providing a service club for the college campus and the community of Keyser. The club was granted International Charter No. 6 this year.

The Circle K Club, sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club, is composed of college men of high character and scholastic standing who feel that service is worth while. The club was the first of its kind in West Virginia.

The ideals of the club are to develop leadership and initiative, to encourage useful training in all educational endeavors of the college, to provide experience in living and working together, to promote good fellowship and scholarship, to serve the college, and to give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.

Some of the major projects completed this year were sponsoring the homecoming parade, presenting an annual talent show, operating the second hand book store, sponsoring a booth in the Kiwanis Ham, Bacon, and Egg Show, and assisting in both the county Polio and Cancer Drives.

The Christian Youth Fellowship was organized on the Potomac State campus in 1949. This organization strives "to bring Christian youth of Potomac State College into closer contact with the church and to deepen their devotional life through recreation and fellowship." Constructive programs are presented by the various members at the meetings which are held each Sunday evening.

Christian Youth Fellowship co-sponsored Religious Emphasis Week and sponsored the Pre-Easter services. It also participated in several campus social events.

The Newman Club is a national Catholic organization which was brought to Potomac State campus in the spring of 1948. Its purpose is to foster the spiritual, intellectual, and social interests of Catholic students. This is done to weld them into a common union and to assist their school and its students whenever possible.

The group is a member of the National Newman Club Federation, the Ohio Valley Province, and the Newman Club Conference of West Virginia. Father John Hannon, the assistant pastor of the Church of the Assumption, Keyser, is the chaplain of the club. Two instructors of Potomac State College serve the organization in an advisory capacity.

At one of the two monthly meetings, a visiting speaker talks to the members on religious and social subjects. All students are welcome to attend these meetings, which have for their purpose the constant addition to one's intellectual ability.

The Medisci Club was originally organized for students in the different branches of medicine. Later, the scope of the club was broadened to include students in all fields of science as well as those students only slightly interested in science. At this time the name "Medisci" was coined.

At the twice monthly meetings, different subjects were discussed, demonstrated, portrayed, or performed. Guest speakers this year included: Robert E. Whitlach, A. K. Van Scoy, John O. Maiden from the faculty, and Dr. John Leech of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company.

The club holds a charter in the West Virginia Collegiate Academy of Science. As a rule, some members of the club attend the annual state meetings of the West Virginia Academy along with local club sponsor, Mr. James T. Handlan, who is the president of the academy.

In the past, some outstanding papers were presented by members of the Medisci Club at the annual state meeting.

The Engineers' Club of Potomac State College is composed of students participating in the Engineering Orientation program. The purpose of the organization is to acquaint the students with the different fields of engineering. During the fall and winter months films are shown weekly, and prominent engineers from nearby industries are invited to give lectures to the group at monthly meetings held in the auditorium of Science Hall. Informal chats with these practicing engineers take place at the end of the meetings. In the spring field trips are taken to nearby industries to produce a satisfactory sequence to the professional atmosphere surrounding this important phase of a student engineer's college life. Membership is limited to engineering students.

The Women's Athletic Association has as its motto "A sport for every woman and every woman in a sport." It was organized to popularize women's athletics and to provide leisure time activities.

The organization aims to develop standards of leadership and sportsmanship and to promote those activities which may be adapted to the leisure time of after school life. Intramural games are bowling, volleyball, badminton, basketball, and pingpong, among other activities that are offered. The club sponsors annually a co-recreational Play Day for high school students in the surrounding schools.

The club is open to all girls on campus. A total of two hundred fifty points entitles a member to an emblem. These points are acquired by participation in tournaments, attending meetings, and in various other ways. A total of five hundred points entitles one to wear the regulation Potomac State College letter which is the highest honor bestowed in women's athletics.

Not Present: James Coble (31), John Mazzie (43), Nick Caggiano (63).

The Catamounts

Davis-Elkins College

An illustrious game was observed by State when they downed the Senators of Davis and Elkins 32-0. Ray Gorman, a brother of the former Catamount players Frank, Gene, and Paul, tallied the first six pointer. Before the half-time, Rudy Telek passed to Lou Borelli in the end zone; Borelli scored the extra point. In the final quarter a Telek pass to Bundy tallied, followed by Telek's conversion.

Salem College

In a conference game, Potomac State defeated Salem College with a 51-12 victory. Bob Sirk accounted for two touchdowns; all other scores were divided. Players who made six pointers were Rudy Telek, Mike Scott, Joe Bundy, Ray Gorman, and Harry Shimer. Three extra points were successful, booted by Borelli, Parker, and Shimer.

Shepherd College

The Rams from Shepherd gave the Catamounts their second loss. Shepherd came through with a 33-0 conquest.

Montgomery College

State's homecoming game was a success by a 33-7 rout over the Montgomery Junior College. Bill Orndorff and Bob Sirk teamed up to score four touchdowns, and Mike Scott made the final six pointer. Three of Borelli's placements scored.

Concord College

The Mountain Lions of Concord downed the Catamounts 7-6, at Athens. Bill Hahalyak passed to Silvio Martell to make State's only score.

West Virginia Wesleyan

A 21-12 defeat was given Potomac State by West Virginia Wesleyan. Rudy Telek scored in the third quarter, and Roger Parker in the final period.

Fairmont College

Completing the season with a home game, the Blue and Gold chalked up a 37-7 victory over Fairmont State College. Silvio Martell made two touchdowns, and Borelli, Gorman, Sirk, and Fisher accounted for one touchdown, respectively. An extra point was tallied by Roger Parker.

—Charles Healy

Robert Sirk, All-American

Robert Sirk was named on the All-American football team as selected by the Williamson Rating System. The selection is based on the consensus of the nation's college athletic departments, as expressed in the Williamson poll. A plaque signed by Joseph D. M. Williamson was presented to Bob Sirk by Coach Dana G. Lough at a special convocation, January 10. Bob was the leading scorer of the Catamounts with 36 points.

Coach Dana Lough

Basketball Squad

The Catamounts were host to Davis and Elkins Senators for the season's first game. The visitors fought from behind to defeat Potomac State 95-87. Bill Edmondson, Glenn Smith, and Jim Walters contributed 20, 17, and 15 points respectively.

The first game away from home was played at Fairmont State. Their well-balanced team handed the Catamounts a 97-81 loss. Bill Edmondson scored 19.

From Alderson-Broaddus College the Catamounts were given another loss, 107-77. Junie Perry collected 22 points.

The Loughmen appeared at home for their fourth defeat, West Virginia Tech won 115-91. Jim Walters, Bill Edmondson, and Ernie Core led the Catamounts attack with 21, 20, and 19 markers.

With a burden of four defeats, the Catamounts were determined to play their best game against Shepherd. The Rams received a 121-104 downfall in Potomac State's gymnasium. Walters, Smith, and Core led with 29, 27 and 25 points.

The Loughmen continued to taste the fruits of victory at the expense of the Altoona five, 82-73. A total of 44 points was racked up by Core and Smith.

Basketball 1955-1956

On January 6, the Catamounts bowed to the Hilltoppers, 102-77, at West Liberty. Jim Walters scored 16 to lead the Potomac Staters.

In a double overtime game at Potomac State, the Concord Lions were victorious with a 113-112 win. Jim Walters who sent the hectic contest into overtime with a pair of free throws had 32 points, and Glenn Smith had 36 points.

The Catamounts were host to Fairmont College on the thirteenth of January. The visitors won 87-81. Edmondson and Core had 23 and 17 points.

Against Salem College the Catamounts lost another game. The final score was 84-79. Core and Walters collected 22 and 21 points.

Potomac State lost, 67-54, when they played at Frostburg. Edmondson led the Loughmen with 17 tallies.

The high-flying Roslyn Air Force Base visited Potomac State with a "slow-motion" type of game. The Roslyn quintet had a 50-48 victory. Walters, Smith, and Perry headed the Cats with 17, 12, and 10 markers.

Potomac State played host to the Altoona five on January 27. The Catamounts were victorious in the campaign, 79-67. Both Edmondson and Smith contributed 16 points.

West Liberty defeated the Loughmen, 95-73, in Wheeling. Jim Walters found the range for 28 tallies to head the State quintet.

The Catamounts avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of Frostburg State by topping them, 84-60, on the local hardwood. The entire starting five scored in the double figures. Walters and Edmondson led the attack with 20 and 21 points.

The Catamounts proved their power against a junior college by mauling the Montgomery Knights, 98-54. The game was played in Potomac State's gymnasium. Edmondson, Core, and Bennett scored 17, 16 ,and 14 points respectively.

At Shepherdstown, the Potomac State quintet was defeated, 96-77. This split the wins between these teams for the season. Ernie Core tallied 22 for the Catamounts.

Potomac State lost to Morris Harvey, 105-74, in Charleston. The Catamounts were minus the services of high-scoring center Jim Walters. Nineteen points were made by Ernie Core.

On February 11, West Virginia Tech handed the Loughmen a 105-86 setback. The game was played on the Golden Bears' court. Glenn Smith led the State five with 23 markers.

A heartbreaker was given the Cats when Salem knocked them for a 94-111 loss on State's court. Walters was high scorer with 34 points.

Potomac State's quintet played their final game of the season against Davis and Elkins College. The Senators were defeated, 91-83, by the Cats. Walters collected 26 points and Edmondson 25.
